STUDENT ENGAGEMENT IN APPLIED LEARNING

Internships, co-ops and research opportunities are essential components of a successful and rewarding career. The Career Center’s Intern/Co-op/Research Practicum (PRAC) is designed to help students maximize their benefits from these opportunities through reflections, evaluations, and professional skills development workshops.

93% of students reported an increase in the clarity of their career goals as a direct result of their applied learning experience.

91% of students reported an increase in their self-confidence as a direct result of their applied learning experience.

80% of students reported an increase in their motivation to continue and persist to graduation as a direct result of their applied learning experience.

WHAT STUDENTS SAY

“The Career Center enabled me to get the most out of my internship and that was a huge help to advance my progress towards my degree as well as my career.”

“The Career Center is highly invested in students’ success at UMBC and will help you along each step of the way to ensure you meet your academic and professional goals.”

“Having the Career Center reassured me that I wasn’t in this alone. I truly appreciated the guidance towards helping me find the perfect internship.”

WHAT EMPLOYERS SAY

“Working with UMBC students and UMBC administration is a pleasure. Our organization’s growth directly correlates to the nature and extent of our collaborations with UMBC. We find everyone we work with to be open to new ideas, approachable, industrious and fun to be around.”

“We rank the quality of the UMBC students very high. They were very well prepared for the assigned tasks, professional at all times, and represented the school well overall.”

“The UMBC students who have done internships with me are the best! They are highly educated, motivated, professional, creative and extremely comprehensive in the work they do for us. I hope to keep recruiting for a long time into the future!”
