UMBC prepared me for my future by:

“Allowing me to network and make all the appropriate connections to people in my intended career field. As a first-generation college student, this was invaluable.”

“Employing a faculty/staff who truly believe in students who believe in themselves. The support I received during my studies at UMBC has continued after graduation, even during a global pandemic. If that isn’t going “above and beyond,” I simply don’t know what is.”

“Allowing me to take classes and find internship/research opportunities in my field of study, which helped me figure out what I was interested in and wanted to do as a career.”

“Connecting me with a diverse group of people. From fellow students to professors to professionals in the field, UMBC has created a network of people I can rely on for future opportunities and lifelong connections.”
